

INFRAGARD LOS ANGELES
TRANSPORTATION SECTOR

Crime vs. Terrorism

A discussion moderated by Rear Admiral Tim Sullivan, USCG, Ret.

Tuesday, February 28, 2017: 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm

DESCRIPTION:

Join the Transportation Sector in an interactive talk about criminal activity in our supply chains and how fighting crime is a sandbox to counter terrorism. Rear Admiral Tim Sullivan, USCG, Ret., will guide the discussion with a focus on supply chain security at our seaports.

LOCATION:

The meeting will take place in Port of Los Angeles area. For security purposes, the exact location will be announced solely to cleared registrants.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Business leaders; Federal, State, County & Local Law Enforcement and Intelligence officers; US Military; Academics; private security professionals; and all members of InfraGard

INFRAGARD MEMBER REGISTRATION:

Members will receive an invitation e-mail from Eventbrite & a link in the Daily Brief. If you have any registration issues, please e-mail jcampbell@infragardlosangeles.org

NON-INFRAGARD MEMBER REGISTRATION:

Please e-mail jcampbell@infragardlosangeles.org with the following information: your full name; employer; job title; how you learned of the course

Documentation of submission of your InfraGard membership application (applications available at <https://www.infragard.org/Application/General/NewApplication>)

Lunch is not included. There is no charge for this event.

Questions: Contact the Transportation Sector Chief tdimascio@infragardlosangeles.org

